

CAS Library Committee Report

(Psychology)

CAS Library Committee members began working by email meeting. It has been and continues to be the Committee's only a few on-campus meetings. An on-campus meeting was Regina Hewitt was elected Chair. The Committee immediately matter at hand—the loss of funding for a full subscription to database. The Committee's response, with the Committee to prioritize the Kanopy problem. The Committee will resume Spring of 2020.

Kanopy Subscription

Because the loss of the full Kanopy subscription negatively impacted members throughout CAS, the Committee prioritized efforts to subscription and to request that funds be found, despite the high that the full subscription costs $118,000.00 per year.

Committee members collected the virtual signatures of 65 members (plus three from the School of the Arts) on a petition making request to Dean of the Libraries Todd Chavez, and Dean Chavez indicated document to support funding requests.

Historic Newspaper Databases

The next priority on the Committee's list is to follow up on request (of 2019) for acquisition of an historic newspaper database, including Hispanic American and Caribbean newspapers, that would facilitate several Departments throughout the College. The Committee met with Dean of the Libraries and with members of Departments who requested this database to provide supporting information for funding requests.

Association of Research Libraries Membership

The Committee will continue to correspond with Dean Chavez and the Library as it is in the process of applying for this important membership. Committee members to work more closely with the Library to involved with that effort. CAS Library Committee members have been invited to participate in Council meetings.
