

3RD ANNUAL UNDERGRADUATE HUMANITIES CONFERENCE

JANUARY 27 - 28, 2022

USF, TAMPA
MARSHALL STUDENT CENTER

UNIVERSITY OF

Welcome from the Humanities Institute

Moderator: Liz Kicak, M.F.A.

Moderator: Liz Kicak, M.F.A.

Oroonoko

Moderator: Nicole Discenza, Ph.D.

Moderator: Holly Donahue Singh, Ph.D.

Moderator: Lindy Davidson, M.Div, Ph.D.

A Woman's Work: Redefining Modern Masculinity and Femininity in James

"A London's Summer Morning" as a Reflection of the True Romantic Era

History of the Nun      The Fair Vow-Breaker

The

Moderator: Liz Kicak, M.F.A.

Angelica is a literary studies English major finishing up her final semester at USF. She is at USF, and hopes to publish their fiction in novels and television someday.

cian. He's involved in a research lab at Moffitt Cancer Center where he studies Chronic a nonprofit bicycle shop. Mat plans on graduating in Spring of 2022 and start a Master's

Delta Epsilon, and a club he started on his own dedicated to the field of orthopedics and representative for the English Major across all three campuses. Kyden is a published fiction, start a nonprofit to help injured athletes from disadvantaged backgrounds who have had el. After graduating in the Spring of 2022, Kyden plans to become certified as an EMT

Biology. She works at Moffitt Cancer Center and is involved in volunteer work with the writing. He is a huge fan of literary realism, specifically socialist realism, as he is sur

