

FMHI Affiliate Contracts and Grants

Mary Armstrong, Ph.D.

West Central Florida Area Agency on Aging, Inc. Older Americans Act Programs Title III-E 2016

Description: USF provides services to rural kinship caregivers. USF conducts monthly support groups, sends newsletters to kinship caregivers with tips about grand parenting, and notifies them of upcoming support groups and other events.

$ Amount: $56,582.00

Utah Department of Human Services Child Welfare Demonstration Project Evaluation

Description: USF provides Implementation Analysis, the Child Welfare Service Array Analysis, and the Fidelity Assessment.

$ Amount: $91,309.00

Florida Title IV-E Waiver Demonstration Evaluation

Description: USF provides evaluation of Waiver implementation process, child and family outcomes and cost analysis.

$ Amount: $90,000.00

Florida System of Care Expansion Grant Evaluation

Description: Project evaluates the Florida Department of Children and Families System of Care Expansion Project.

$ Amount: $97,500.00

Evaluation to Measure the Effectiveness of Florida's Title IV-E Waiver Demonstration Project

Description: USF provides evaluation for the state of Florida on the Title-IV Waiver demonstration in the areas of process implementation, child and family outcomes, and cost.

$ Amount: $208,333.00

Karen Berkman, Ph.D.

Center for Autism & Related Disabilities (CARD) 2016-2017

Description: The Center for Autism & Related Disabilities at USF is a community-based project that provides information and consultation to individuals diagnosed with autism spectrum disorders and related disabilities. CARD-USF offers instruction and coaching to families and professionals through a training and assistance model.

$ Amount: $1,444,757.00

civilian RF program in Florida to determine services currently being delivered to Veterans with TBI.

$ Amount: $10,020.60

Norin Dollard, Ph.D.

Florida KIDS COUNT 2016

Description: Annie E. Casey Foundation's KIDS COUNT state and national initiative tracks the status of children and families in Florida and across the United States, including territories. Efforts include engaging local, state and national communities and audiences. This effort gathers and disseminates secondary data; develops publications; maintains website(s); and provides consultation to policy-makers, researchers, educators, students, state and local governments, private foundation, businesses, advocacy groups and Florida citizens.

$ Amount: $119,466.00

Mark Engelhardt, Ph.D.

Criminal Justice, Mental Health and Substance Abuse Technical Assistant Center

Description: FMHI provides counties with technical assistance, disseminates and shares evidence-based practices, and coordinates/organizes state interagency justice, mental health & substance abuse work group for state & local policy/budget developments & system planning.

$ Amount: $18,000

PATH Project Assistance in Transition from Homelessness – Training and Technical Assistance

Description: This project provides

Specifically, MHLP faculty Mark Engelhardt and Jim Winarski work as team to provide technical assistance on the following Evidenced-based Practices (EBP): Housing First, Motivation Interviewing and Co-

the Story Friends curriculum. The long-term goal of this project is to reduce preventable reading in the child welfare system, 2) increase the timeliness of identifying youth victims of trafficking, and 3) provide effective treatment services and supports for youth victims of trafficking.

$ Amount: $50,000.00

Celia Lescano, Ph.D.

SHARE Haiti: Syndemic HIV/AIDS Research and Education

Description: This project creates infrastructure support for innovative research education and capacity-building with social and behavioral faculty/scholars at Universite d'Etat d'Haiti (UEH).

$ Amount: $415,787.00

Roxann McNeish, Ph.D.

Making Connections for Mental Health

Description: Formative evaluation is employed with the aim of improving the project's design and performance during program implementation. Formative evaluations are conducted during a program's implementation and are therefore able to support real-time feedback and recommendations to Initiative grantees as well as feedback to the Prevention Institute and Movember Foundation.

$ Amount: $456,043.00

Kathleen Moore, Ph.D.

Evaluation of Hillsborough County's Marchman Court

Description: This subcontract provides the performance assessment and data collection for the evaluation portion of the Hillsborough County Marchman Court program. The evaluation includes process and outcome components.

$ Amount: $48,938.00

An Analysis of Prescription and Illicit Drug Use in Hillsborough County

Description: Dr. Kathleen Moore investigates the correlation between the rectorre1 T -2 (ee) u(-2 (ee) u(-20 ()

Evaluation of Hillsborough County's Veteran Treatment Court Program

Description: Dr. Moore provides performance assessment and data collection for the evaluation portion of the Hillsborough County Veteran Treatment Court (VTC) program. The evaluation collects, analyzes, and reports data in adherence with the Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA).

$ Amount: $11,029.00

An Analysis of Prescription and Illicit Drug Use in Hillsborough County

Description: Dr. Kathleen Moore investigates the correlation between the recent policy modifications on class II controlled substances (i.e. more stringent use of EFORCSE) and the trends in use of illegal street drugs.

$ Amount: $6,306.00

Roger Peters, Ph.D.

Forensic Multidisciplinary Team/GFIT Services in Hillsborough County-Technical Assistance

Description: USF faculty provides technical assistance to Gracepoint, Inc. and its community partners in evidence-based mental health and substance abuse treatment interventions for the new Gracepoint Forensic ImpACT Team (GFIT; Forensic Multidisciplinary Team for Hillsborough County, Florida). This project provides diversion from incarceration for felony offenders/defendants who have mental and substance use disorders. Technical assistance focuses on training to implement risk assessment, treatment plans, and treatment services that are aligned with the Risk-Need-Responsivity model.

$ Amount: 25,000.00

Brent Small, Ph.D.

VA IPA for John Schinka, Ph.D. for consultation concerning aging homeless veterans

Description: This is for an Intergovernmental Personnel Agreement (IPA) for Dr. John Schinka from James A. Haley Veterans' Hospital to provide consultation on the development of programs and program evaluation strategies for aging homeless Veterans.

$ Amount: $46,251.00

Internet-assisted Cognitive Behavior Intervention for Targeted Therapy fatigue

Description: This project is developing a tablet delivered intervention for cancer survivors who are suffering from fatigue.

$ Amount: $9,038.00

VA IPA for John Schinka, Ph.D. for consultation concerning aging homeless veterans

Description: USF will re-establish the Summer Research Institute at the Florida Mental Health Institute (SRI@FMHI) during the summers of 2012 through 2016. The objectives of the

16-17 Child Welfare Staff Development and Training

Description: USF provides comprehensive child welfare training and staff development service to Child Protection Professionals working in DCF Circuit 7 for the Community Partnership for Children Community Based Care Lead agency and contracted providers.

$ Amount: $380,772.00

IPV and Fatherhood Intervention in Residential Substance Abuse Treatment

Description: The objective of this project provides evidence for the feasibility, acceptability and effectiveness of a novel intervention for men with co-occurring IPV and SA who are in residential treatment called Fathers for Change.

$ Amount: $222,007.00

among offenders with mental health problems and repeated Baker Acts and incarceration by providing an intervention that includes individualized mental health and supportive services. USF's role will be to develop and implement procedures to assess the intervention's effectiveness.

$ Amount: $132,401.00

Low Demand Safe Haven Project

Description: USF develops and evaluates an implementation process, based on established Center implementation framework designs, that develops low demand models at selected Grant/Per Diem sites. Once developed, USF will monitor the sites.

$ Amount: $54,845.00

Pinellas SMART Re-Entry Probation

Description: Pinellas SMART (Specific Measurable Achievable Relevant Time-bound) Re-Entry will incorporate the Florida Department of Corrections strategic plan, which provides guidance in promoting safety of the public, staff and offenders in order to provide effective, enhanced supervision; offer opportunities for successful re-entry into society, and maximize our partnerships to continue improving the quality of life in Florida. The Alternative Sanctions Program (ASP) and Evidence Based Practices to be implemented will focus on employment placement, substance abuse treatment, and skills training for offenders, all of which have been shown to reduce victimization and recidivism. University of South Florida will act as the project's Research Partner in order to evaluate the impact and effectiveness of the proposed strategies.

$ Amount: $40,000.00

64 Total Grant Awards: $10,017,933.08