

Statement of the Director, Bureau of the Census, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C.

February 1, 1964

Dear Mr. [Name]:

Reference is made to your letter of January 22, 1964.

The Bureau of the Census is currently conducting a study of the economic conditions of the Nation and the role of the Federal Government in the economy.

The study is being conducted in order to provide a basis for the development of a long-range economic program for the Nation. The study will be completed by the end of the year and the results will be published in a report to the President and the Congress.

The study will be a comprehensive analysis of the economic conditions of the Nation and the role of the Federal Government in the economy. It will cover a wide range of economic activities and will provide a detailed analysis of the economic conditions of the Nation.

The study will be a comprehensive analysis of the economic conditions of the Nation and the role of the Federal Government in the economy.

The study will be a comprehensive analysis of the economic conditions of the Nation and the role of the Federal Government in the economy.

Very truly yours,
Director

Enclosed for you are two copies of the report.

If you have any questions concerning the report, please contact the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C.

If you have any questions concerning the report, please contact the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C.

Very truly yours,
Director

Very truly yours,
Director

cc: [Name]

[Name]

[Name]

[Name]

[Name]

[Name]

[Name]

[Name]

[Name]