

Showing a Movie in the MSC

Copyright Guidelines for Showing Movies, DVDs and Videos

(Adapted from MSC, See McDermott, Geena C. et al. "The Role of the Law in the Digital Age")

When you watch a DVD, download a file, or stream a video, you are not making a public performance. You are simply watching a movie in your home. This is not a public performance.

First, is it a "public performance"?

The answer is no. A public performance is a performance that is made available to the public. This is not a public performance. You are simply watching a movie in your home.
