The following is additional information for the Social Work major:

Students can apply to start at USF during any semester, however, social work major cohorts will begin their coursework in either fall or spring semesters. The BSW Program is a full time, lock-step structured program with two different modalities: an in-person cohort and an online cohort. See program structure section below for more information. When applying through the Office of Admissions, please make sure to select the appropriate campus for the program modality you wish to pursue.

Incoming transfer students are encouraged to make an academic advising appointment as a prospective student before applying
